

Notes from previous meeting (16th September)

AG Lorraine and David Hurd, Malcolm McGinn, Eric Myers and Jack Parsons were welcome returns to the fold. Rebecca Goss very kindly shared her birthday with members.

Directors presented their monthly reports.

Another grant submission has been lodged for the Walk of Remembrance project.

The club web site is continually being updated and the site's developer, Cassie, will be at the RSL from 5.45 on Wednesday 23/09 to meet with members and guide them through the site, and teach those interested how to add and modify material.

The annual Seniors' Luncheon will be on November 22nd this year. Lock the date into your diaries.

To support the Rotary Foundation, another 200 club will be run. Thanks to David Hurd for printing the tickets. At $20 each with the chance to win $2000, these make great gifts.

Michael Cooke and his committee are continuing to investigate the possibility of a local business awards programme.

ROTARY CLUB OF CLAREMONT BULLETIN

Wednesday 23rd September

The membership committee is encouraging us all to think of potential members. Inviting them to the Group Forum on 5th October would be a great introduction. Numbers and payment ($30p.p.) need to be finalised on 23/09.

Treasurer Rebecca reported that, while the club is in a good financial position, recent expenditure has been higher than income. Thank you to all members who have paid their subs.

Advertisements for the Cycle Challenge will soon be appearing on Southern Cross Television. The ride is Sunday 1st November. Calls have been put out for someone to act as safety officer in Anne Simpson's absence. This is a key job.

As per last week's Bulletin members have been invited to attend the RAW lunch at the Showgrounds on Friday 23/10 at $50 per head.

This early bird price includes lunch and entry to the Show. Late tickets will be $55. See Greg Saunders or Della if you are able to attend. Also, please let Della know whether you think the Stefano Lubiana Wines visit is viable or not.

ROYAL HOBART SHOW Gotta GO! W

Lillian spoke about Youth Exchange and encouraged members to consider hosting a student as well as publicising the programme to any suitable young people.

AG Lorraine gave more details about the Group Forum. As well as the presentations, there are some excellent raffle prizes including a voucher for a Pennicott cruise , 2 nights' accommodation and Hill Street Grocer vouchers. All profits go to Colony 47.

There was a brief fines session. Bryan Harrington went home considerably poorer.
